REPORTS

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NE WYORK, Nov. 20.—The stock market confounded all the prophets today by turning reactionary in tone. All of the fraternity of professional speculators came down to Wall street this morning inclined to the bull side. Their operations combined with an outside demand through commission houses invited by last week's course of events carried prices upward for a brief period, but realizing promptly became manifest and Manhattan developed such conspicuous weakness as to affect the whole list. By noon the weakness had become marked in a number of the industrial specialties. This was attributed to the expectation of a decision by the United States Supreme Court in a case bearing on the validity of the new form of industrial combination which has been so widely used in the last year. The industrials ralled considerably when the news came from Washington that the decision had not been handed down today. The rally was due to operations by room traders, and the explanation of the early weakness came from the same source and was simply an effort to interpret the weakness of stocks, which was a palpable fact.

There was some profit taking in speculative bonds, but at other points in the list some strength was shown.

Total sales of stocks today were 541, 590 charges. Stocks closed as follows: Atchison, pref'd ... 665, Balto, & Ohio ... 553, Canadian Pacific ... 95

Private Smith of the Royals; the veldt and a slate-black sky. Hillocks of mud, brick-red with blood, and a prayer—half curse to die. A lung and a Masser bullet; pink froth and a hulf-choked cry.

Private Smith, of the Royals; a tor-rent of freezing rain; A hail of frost on a life half lost; de-spair and a grinding pain. And the drip-drip-drip of the heavens to wash out the brand of Cain.

Private Smith, of the Royals; self-sounding his funeral-knell.

A burning throat that each gasping note scrupes raw like a broken shell. A thirst like a red hot fron and a tongue like a patch of hell.

Private Smith, of the Royals; the blush a dawning day;

The fading mist that the sun has kised-and over the hills away.

The blest Red Cross like an anget in the trail of the men who slay.

But Private Smith, of the Royals, gaz-I up at the soft blue sky-rose-tinged morn like a babe new orn and the sweet-senged birds or born and the sweether high—high—
With a fleek of red on his pallid lip and a film of white on his eye.
